*F*rom your classic Cape Cod deck, watch as ferries, fishing vessels and pleasure yachts sail past a charming, working lighthouse, bound for Nantucket Sound.

Anchor-in offers a level of accommodations unequalled by any other lodging of similar size on Cape Cod. Anchor-in... a special place... a special location... for special guests. We look forward to making your visit to Cape Cod a most memorable one.

*Your Hosts,
Lisa and Skip Simpson*

*B*egin each day in our Lewis Bay Library and cozy sunroom overlooking the harbor with comfortable wicker chairs and a continental breakfast. It's also a great place to sit back with a book, enjoy the scenery or meet new friends from around the world.

Guests can easily walk to Bayview Beach, ferries to Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard, waterfront restaurants, and harbor cruises to Hyannisport and the Kennedy compound. On Main Street, Hyannis, discover a diverse variety of shops, restaurants, gift stores, festivals, the Cape Cod Central Railroad, and the Kennedy Museum. And just a short drive away, you will find whale watching, golf, historic Route 6A, summer theater, bike trails, and world class Cape Cod beaches, including the Cape Cod National Seashore.

Directions:

Cross the Cape Cod Canal via the Sagamore Bridge. Stay on Rte. 6 East until you reach the Hyannis turn off (Exit #6), bear right onto Rte. 132. Stay on Rte. 132, past the Cape Cod Mall, to the Airport Rotary Circle. Take the second right off the rotary, which is Barnstable Road to the lights on Main Street. (At this point Barnstable Road becomes Ocean Street). Cross Main Street and go to the next set of traffic lights and make a left turn onto South Street (one way). Go to the end of South Street (1/4 mile) and we're on the right.
